2022-23

About PHEAA

Created in 1963 by the Pennsylvania General Assembly, the Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency (PHEAA) has evolved into one of the nation's leading student aid organizations. Today PHEAA is a national provider of student financial services, serving millions of students and thousands of schools through its loan guaranty, loan servicing, financial aid processing, outreach, and other student aid programs.

PHEAA's earnings are used to support its public service mission and to pay its operating costs, including administration of the PA State Grant and other state-funded student aid programs. As the only major federal loan servicer with a nonprofit public service mission, PHEAA devotes its energy and resources to help ease the financial burden of higher education for its primary stakeholders, Pennsylvania students and families.

PHEAA conducts its student loan servicing operations nationally as American Education Services (AES).

How Much Will It Cost?

The cost of higher education is more than just tuition and fees. It also includes:

- Housing & Meals
- Books & Supplies
- Transportation
- Personal Expenses

For the big picture, multiply your Total Student Budget by the number of years you'll be in school. Now you see why financial aid is so important.

Remember, this is just for ONE year!

College Net Price

College "Net Price" is how much you'll pay for college after subtracting your grants and scholarships from the full cost of school. Schools are required to have a net price calculator on their website. Input your personal info to see how much similar students paid last year; this gives you a starting place to estimate some of your own costs. Visit collegecost.ed.gov for links to colleges' available net price calculators.

1. Click (arrow pointing to the Net Price Calculator Center tile)

2. Choose your school (arrow pointing to the search bar)

Net Price Calculator Center

Search for Schools' Calculator

[Begin typing to search for schools]

What does Net Price mean?
Net Price is the amount that a student pays to attend an institution in a single academic year AFTER subtracting scholarships and grants the student receives. Scholarships and grants are forms of financial aid that a student does not have to pay back.

What is a Net Price Calculator?
Net price calculators are available on a college's or university's website and allow prospective students to enter information about themselves to find out what students like them paid to attend the institution in the previous year, after taking grants and scholarship into account.

How do other students describe net price?

Applying for Financial Aid

You and your family will want to find out if you qualify for financial assistance. Don't assume that you won't qualify. Nearly two-thirds of students receive some type of financial assistance. You won't qualify if you never apply.

Types of Financial Aid

Grants

Grant money is typically based on your family's financial situation. If you qualify for grant funds, you don't pay this money back.

Scholarships

Scholarship money is typically awarded based on your merit or performance.

Work-Study

Work-study programs allow you to earn money by working at school. Work-study is usually a need-based, part-time job on or near campus.

Loans

Student loans must be repaid! There are various types, and some have better terms than others. It is important that you only borrow what you need.

Only as needed!

Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA®)

The FAFSA is the MOST IMPORTANT APPLICATION to complete for almost all types of financial aid. Many programs use the FAFSA to determine eligibility for grants and scholarships. The FAFSA is available on October 1 for the upcoming award year. Since deadlines vary, complete the FAFSA as soon as possible!

If you plan to attend school from	You can submit the FAFSA from	Tax Info

FAFSA Simplification Update

Federal Student Aid (FSA) announced that there will be a phased approach to implementation of the FAFSA Simplification Act, which passed on December 27, 2020, as part of the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021.

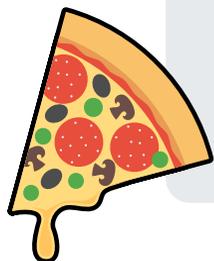

2024-25 FAFSA Changes

As a result of this act, there will be significant changes, for the 2024-25 academic year, made to both the FAFSA and the federal formula which is used to determine a student's financial need. Some of the changes include:

- Less questions will be asked on the FAFSA due to planned seamless exchange with the IRS
- Expected Family Contribution (EFC) will change to Student Aid Index (SAI)
- Divorced or Separated Parents: Whose financial data appears on the FAFSA will now be based on who provides more support to the student rather than whom the student lived with
- To be counted in family size, a child must be a dependent as defined by the IRS.

Data will be imported from your federal tax return!

3 steps to file the FAFSA

Step 1 Organize your info

The FAFSA asks for details about you and your financial situation. If you're married, you will need the same info for your spouse. If you're a dependent student, you will also need your parents' info. Check to see if you are considered a dependent student.

You will need these items to complete your FAFSA:

- Your Federal Student Aid account username and password (FSA ID)
- Your Social Security number
- Your driver's license number (optional)
- Your Alien Registration number if you are not a U.S. citizen
- Your W-2 Forms
- Records of untaxed income received: workers' compensation, child support, tax-deferred pension payments, etc.
- Your federal income tax return 1040 and accompanying schedules
- Your current checking and savings statements and records of stocks, bonds, 529 plans, and other investments
- A personal email address (not a school email address)

Will I need to answer questions about my parents on the FAFSA?

Dependent students must provide household parental info on the FAFSA. In general, most students under the age of 24 are considered dependent.

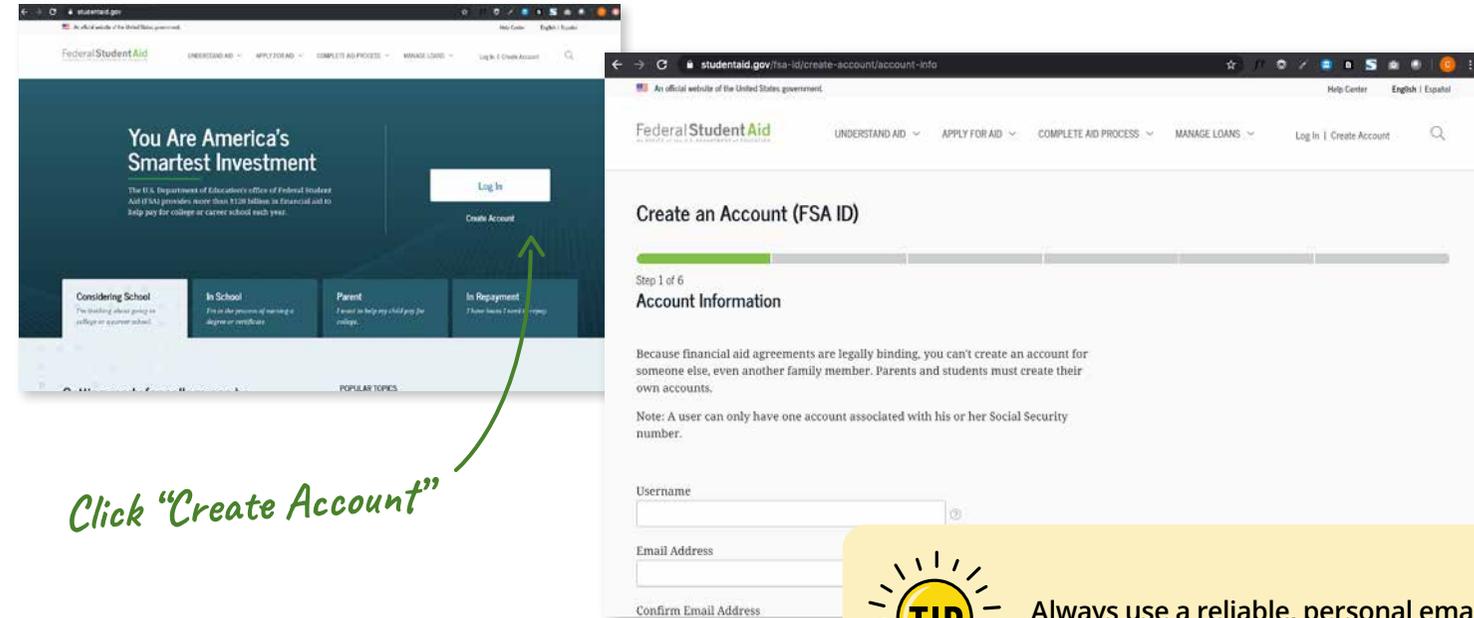

Independent students are NOT required to provide parental info on the FAFSA. You may be considered independent if any of the following apply:

- 24 years of age or older by December 31 of the award year
- An orphan (both parents deceased), in foster care, or a ward of the court when 13 years or older
- Have legal dependents, other than a spouse
- An emancipated minor or in legal guardianship through the court
- An unaccompanied homeless youth
- A veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces or serving on active duty for other than training purposes
- A graduate or professional student
- Married or separated

Step 2 Create a Federal Student Aid Account at studentaid.gov

Visit studentaid.gov to create an account. Your account login (also referred to as an FSA ID) is the username and password used to access most U.S. Department of Education websites. It also serves as your electronic signature.

If you are a dependent student, both you AND one of your parents should create an account to electronically sign the FAFSA.

 TIP Always use a reliable, personal email address. Don't use your school email.

Step 3 File at studentaid.gov

Now that you have organized your info and created an account, you're ready to file. Before starting the FAFSA, turn off any pop-up blockers in your browser. This ensures you don't miss any tool tips or information. Visit studentaid.gov to get started.

The image shows a screenshot of the studentaid.gov website at the 'Complete the FAFSA Form' page. The page has a dark blue header with the 'Federal Student Aid' logo and navigation links. The main content area has a large heading 'Complete the FAFSA Form' and a sub-heading 'New to the FAFSA Process? Completing the FAFSA form is free. Fill it out now.' with a 'Start Here' button. Below this is a 'Returning User?' section with a 'Log In' button. A green arrow points from the 'Start Here' button to the text 'Click "Start Here" to begin.' written in green. Below the main content area is a 'FAFSA Announcements' section with a link for a 'Planned Outage of FAFSA.gov and the FAFSA MyStudentAid Mobile App From April 10 to April 11, 2024'.

 TIP Use your legal name as it appears on your Social Security card. Do NOT use a nickname on the FAFSA.

FAFSA FAQs

What if I need to make corrections to the FAFSA?

Visit studentaid.gov and log into your account to make changes to your FAFSA.

Should I file the 2023-24 FAFSA or the 2022-23 FAFSA?

If you want to apply for financial aid for the 2022-23 Academic Year, you need to file the 2022-23 FAFSA. Check with your school's Financial Aid Office if you need further guidance, especially if you plan to take summer classes.

What schools should I list when asked, "Where do you want to go to school?"

List any schools you're thinking about attending for the upcoming school year, listing your top choice first (you can list up to 10 schools on the FAFSA). The results of your FAFSA will be sent to the schools that you list. Keep in mind:

- You can add and delete schools at any time.
- It's important to indicate if you will live on campus, off campus, or with a parent.
- You can add the school to the list on your FAFSA even if you haven't applied or been accepted yet.

What is the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Data Retrieval Tool (DRT)?

The IRS DRT allows you to electronically transfer your federal tax return info into your FAFSA. The IRS DRT can be used by both students and parents. For security purposes, tax info transferred through the retrieval tool cannot be viewed or changed by the applicant. To learn more about the IRS DRT, visit studentaid.gov/irsdrt.

What assets do I include on the FAFSA?

Assets that you may need to report the value of include:

- Cash, checking, and savings accounts
- Investments like stocks, savings bonds, CDs, and mutual funds
- Coverdell accounts owned by you or a parent who completed the FAFSA for you
- All 529 plans owned by you or a parent who completed the FAFSA for you
- UGMA and UTMA accounts that you own
- Custodial accounts
- Rental properties that you own

If you're a dependent student, the FAFSA may require you to list your parent's assets. In some cases, the FAFSA allows you to skip the asset questions. Reported assets are based on net values, as of the date you submit your application.

Assets that you DON'T need to report the value of include:

- Your family home if it is your principal place of residence
- Your family farm, if the farm is your principal place of residence and your family materially participates in its operations
- Your family business, if your family owns and controls more than 50 percent of a small business with fewer than 100 full-time or full-time equivalent employees
- Life insurance policies
- 401k, 403b, non-education IRAs, Keogh, pension plans, and qualified retirement plans

My parents are divorced or separated. What info should I provide on the FAFSA?

You should provide info for the parent you lived with the most over the past 12 months. Include info about any stepparent in that same household. If you lived with both parents an equal amount of time, provide info for the parent who gave you the most financial support over the past 12 months.

What if I have special financial circumstances?

Sometimes, the info on the FAFSA doesn't represent your ability to pay for school. If you and your family have an unusual financial situation, please contact the Financial Aid Office at the schools you want to attend. In addition to your FAFSA info, the Financial Aid Office may be able to consider:

- Recent unemployment or loss of income
- High medical expenses not covered by insurance
- Divorce or separation
- Death or disability of a parent or spouse
- Unusual circumstances

You may also go to PHEAA.org/StateGrant for guidance reporting special circumstances that may affect your PA State Grant eligibility.

How do you calculate financial need?

Once you complete the FAFSA, the Financial Aid Office at each school that accepts you will provide a financial aid offer to outline your financial aid eligibility. These offers are simply a list of the amounts and types of aid that you may receive from various financial aid programs.

$$\text{Cost of Attendance (COA)} - \text{Your Expected Family Contribution (EFC)} = \text{Your Financial Need}$$

After Filing FAFSA

After filing, you will see an instant confirmation page. Don't close that page! There's a link to the PA State Grant Form that you should click. Additional info about the PA State Grant Program is in the next section.

STOP! The quickest way to apply for a PA State Grant is from the confirmation page.

If you provided an email address on your FAFSA, you'll get a confirmation email when the U.S. Department of Education processes your application. If you didn't provide an email, you will get a confirmation letter in the mail. If you have questions about your FAFSA results, you can contact 1-800-4-FED-AID (1-800-433-3243) for more info.

PHEAA and each of the schools that you listed on your FAFSA will receive a copy of the info you provided, including the Expected Family Contribution (EFC). The EFC is calculated by a federal formula based on the income and asset info that you provided; you can review your EFC on the FAFSA confirmation page. In May, PHEAA will send you an update about your eligibility for the PA State Grant Program.

PA State Grant Program

The PA State Grant Program has awarded over $12.3 billion to PA residents since 1965. PA State Grants are available to eligible Pennsylvania residents who need help paying for undergraduate study at PHEAA-approved postsecondary schools.

Award amounts are subject to state funding and are based on your school costs and financial need. Grants are available for full-time or half-time enrollment. To receive a grant, you must complete the FAFSA and enroll in an approved program of study that is at least 2 academic years in length. Additional requirements, including info about student requirements such as academic progress, can be found at PHEAA.org/StateGrant.

Do I have to be a PA resident to get a PA State Grant?

Yes, you must be a Pennsylvania resident.

If you're 18 or older – You must be a Pennsylvania resident for at least the 12 consecutive months before the established FAFSA filing deadline. If you came into or remained in Pennsylvania for the purpose of attending a school or college, this 12-month period excludes any time you spent enrolled in a Pennsylvania postsecondary school. In all cases, this provision does not apply for students enrolled in a Pennsylvania Community College or a Business, Trade, and Technical school located within the Commonwealth.

If you're under 18 – You need a supporting parent or guardian who has been a Pennsylvania resident for at least the 12 consecutive months before the established FAFSA filing deadline. In all cases, this provision does not apply for students enrolled in a Pennsylvania Community College or a Business, Trade, and Technical school located within the Commonwealth.

Can I use a PA State Grant at a school located in another state?

Only schools located in reciprocal states are approved for participation in the Pennsylvania State Grant Program. A reciprocal state is one that permits its own state grant funds to be used by students attending schools in Pennsylvania. States that continue to support students attending schools in Pennsylvania include Delaware, District of Columbia, Massachusetts, Ohio, Vermont, and West Virginia. Students attending institutions in all other states are ineligible.

What is Account Access?

Account Access is PHEAA's online account management tool. With Account Access, you can apply for state aid, check the status of your application, make updates, and review your personal info.

Who is American Education Services (AES)?

PHEAA nationally operates part of its business as American Education Services (AES). We use our AES secure systems to administer some of our financial aid programs, including the PA State Grant program. You may see AES branding in your online account and emails.

Financial Aid Offers

After filing the FAFSA and being accepted, the school will send you details about how much you owe and your financial aid package. Schools format their financial aid offers differently, but they contain the same overall info:

Cost of Attendance

Tuition and fees, housing and meals, books, supplies, travel, and personal expenses. If some of these are not listed on your offers, check the school's website or contact their Financial Aid Office.

Gift Aid

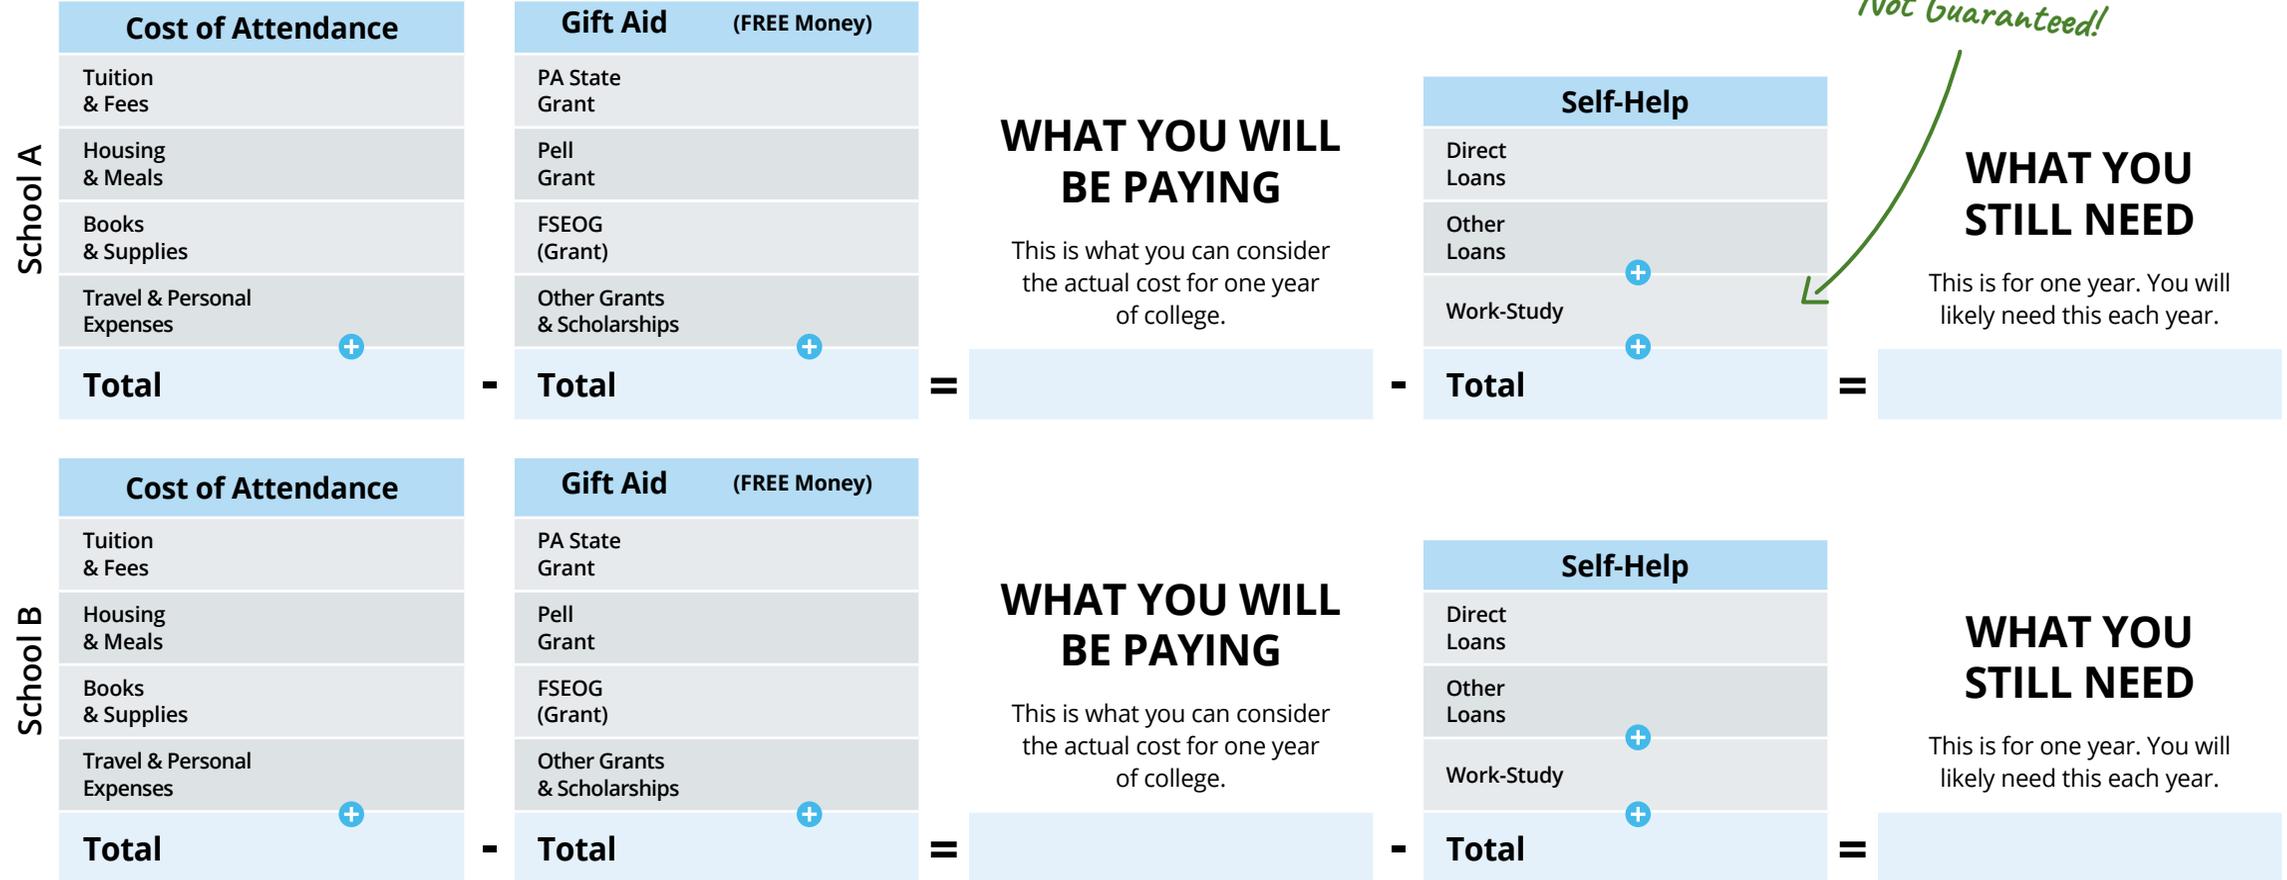

All the FREE sources of financial aid that the school offers you and that you receive from federal, state, and other sources. Be sure to include any private scholarships not listed.

Self-Help Aid

Self-help aid is different from gift aid in that you must repay the funds, or work to earn them. Work-study awards are not deducted from your bill.

Now do the math. "What you still need" is the amount you're responsible to pay after all of your aid is applied. If you can't cover this with family assistance, savings, or private loans, then you may need to consider a less expensive school.

Special State Aid Programs

Some of these programs require financial need. Eligibility criteria can be found under Funding Opportunities at PHEAA.org.

In addition to demonstrating financial need, you must also meet these general requirements:

- Be a PA resident
- Be a graduate of an approved high school, the recipient of a GED, or have completed an approved home school program
- Attend an eligible postsecondary school
- Not be in default on a federal student loan

Segal AmeriCorps Education Award Program	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> AmeriCorps offers public service positions where service members learn valuable work skills, earn money for education, and develop an appreciation for citizenship. Federal Direct Loan Program

Federal Direct student loans help students and families pay for higher education. These loans have fixed interest rates and flexible repayment options. You have to complete the FAFSA and sign a Master Promissory Note (MPN) to apply.

Visit studentaid.gov for the most current program info, requirements, and rates.

Direct Loans for Students

Undergraduate, graduate, and professional degree students may qualify for Direct Subsidized or Unsubsidized Loans. Students often borrow both types of loans. Student borrowers begin repayment after leaving school or dropping to less than half-time status. Typically, you get a 6-month grace period before you have to start making payments.

Direct Subsidized Loans

The federal government pays the interest on your subsidized loans while you're in school and during your 6-month grace period. You must complete the FAFSA and show financial need to qualify.

Direct Unsubsidized Loans

On an unsubsidized loan, the federal government does NOT pay any interest for you. Interest is charged while you are in school and during your grace period. You can either pay it or let it accrue (add up) until you begin full repayment of your loan. Unsubsidized loans will cost you more than subsidized loans over time, due to the interest.

Direct PLUS Loans for Parents

Parents of dependent undergraduate students can borrow a PLUS Loan to help pay for their child's education. The PLUS Loan has a fixed interest rate and allows parents to borrow up to the remaining cost of attendance (cost of attendance minus any financial aid) determined by the school. You do not have to demonstrate financial need to get a PLUS Loan.

Parent PLUS borrowers must pass a credit check. If the borrower has an adverse credit history, they can still borrow a PLUS Loan with an endorser (co-signer). Students whose parents' PLUS Loans are denied may also qualify to borrow higher loan amounts available to independent students through the Unsubsidized Direct Loan Program.

Paying for College Pyramid

Higher education is an investment in your future, but you still need to choose wisely when paying for school.

Private Student Loans

Students and families can borrow private education loans to help meet their costs. These loans allow you to borrow money to cover your remaining costs not covered by financial aid. These loans are nonfederal loans, and the terms vary by lender.

PHEAA's PA Forward Student Loan Program is a private educational loan that students and or parents can use to borrow to help pay education costs.

REMEMBER... Borrow only what you need! It can be tempting to accept all the money you're offered, but you should be careful about how much you'll repay later. Make sure to use the maximum amount of all free aid or subsidized loans before looking at private loans.

If you might need private student loans to help cover educational expenses, use this checklist to help evaluate your options:

- Did you explore all your other financial aid options with the school?
- Did you calculate how much total loan debt you're realistically able to handle?
- What fees are assessed and when?
- Is the interest rate fixed or variable?
- Will you need a co-signer? If yes:
 - Who is eligible to co-sign?
 - Is there a co-signer release option, and what are the terms?
- Is there a minimum or maximum amount you can borrow each year?
- What repayment options will you have?
- Can you defer payments while you're still in school?
- Are there any penalties for early repayment or prepayment?
- Can the loan be forgiven? If yes, how?
- What are the consequences of non-payment for the borrower and co-signer?
